GUEST TEACHERS FOR JUNE

MARGO MCCANN

Invitational Ballet Class June 2 11:00-1:00
Margo had her early training in Beaumont, TX and at the age of 14 received a full scholarship to the School of American Ballet (SAB). After graduating from SAB, she joined the Fort Worth Ballet as a principal dancer in 1986. She performed in many Balanchine ballets such as Agon, Rubies, Serenade and Who Cares? After 17 years, Margo retired from ballet and became the managing director of Texas Ballet Theater. She now lives in NYC and is the director of Pure Barre on Columbus Avenue.

SILAS FARLEY

Workshop Classes June 7 and 8
Silas Farley is a member of New York City Ballet. He started ballet, jazz and tap in Charlotte, North Carolina when he was 7 years old. At the age of 14, Mr. Farley attended the summer course at SAB on full scholarship and was invited to enroll as a full time student. He choreographed works for the SAB 2013 Winter Ball and for the New York Choreographic Institute. He is currently choreographing a work to be presented at the Metropolitan Museum for 2019. He has been selected to be part of the SAB teaching staff as he has a passion for working with students and sharing his expertise of the Balanchine technique. Mr. Farley will be accompanied by his wife CASSIA FARLEY, who studied at SAB and then joined Ballet Austin.

INFORMATION

Classes will be held in the Fort Worth Country Day Ballet studios. Entrance to the campus is off Bryant Irvin Road and parking is in Lot E across from the Kindergarten building.
